

Ghost PRO

(Paranormal Research Organization)

Code of Ethics and Conduct

- Maintain strict adherence to all applicable municipal, state and federal laws.
- Do not engage in discrimination toward any party based upon age, sex, gender identity or orientation, race, color, creed, religion, national origin, affiliation, marital status, disability, social, economic or educational status.
- Respect individual client and associate privacy rights through strict confidentiality and non-exploitation.
- Define the purposes, expectations, strategies and limitations of each investigative research to both client and associate.
- Respect each investigation and research venue through exercise of care and knowledge.
- Maintain honesty, fairness, respect and professionalism toward the public, clients and associates.
- Maintain high standards of integrity during investigations and research through observation of accepted industry protocols and procedures, technical competence and continuing informative education.
- Maintain high standards of integrity during data analysis and presentation through diligent documentation and careful interpretation whereas to avoid misleading or erroneous conclusions.
- Promote advancement of the paranormal research field by providing credible resources of knowledge to the public and clients and by discouragement of negligent methods or practitioners.
- Provide all investigative and analysis services free of compensation.
- Maintain dignity, compassion, tact and an open mind.